

BlueRange Technology New Leadership Appointment

Oakville, ON Dec 15, 2009 – BlueRange Technology, a leader in information technology and VDI solutions, announced today the appointment of Jody Zedor as Vice President, Sales and Business Development. Jody joins the team in a leadership role and will focus on the continued growth of the overall BlueRange business in North America. Jody will be located in the Oakville, Ontario head office reporting, to Jeff McFarlane, President and CEO of the Xchange Technology Group.

Jody Zedor brings a proven record as an expert sales leader and business developer over the past 20 years; with a career comprised of leadership roles at corporate end-user and channel sales within the IT vendor and reseller space. His tenure involved positions at various manufacturers and distribution channels including Hewlett-Packard, GE Capital IT Solutions, and Dell Canada. Just prior to joining BlueRange Technology Jody was Director of Sales, Central Region, at HP Canada where he led a team of sales and service professionals that were focused on the needs of channel business partners, plus commercial SMB customers across the entire HP portfolio.

“Jody is an excellent addition to the executive team at BlueRange Technology and brings with him a comprehensive understanding of IT solutions and the mid-market customer segment” commented Jeff McFarlane, President & CEO. “His experience in both the Systems Integrator and Vendor roles provides him a unique perspective that will be insightful as he leads the expansion BlueRange Technology in North America” McFarlane added.

“I’m excited about the opportunity to join such a well managed, and growth orientated company. The opportunities that lie ahead for BlueRange Technology are endless. The company is uniquely positioned to capitalize on Data Center server/storage consolidation and virtualization opportunities, as well as Virtual Desktop and Networking opportunities in this fast growing marketplace” commented Zedor.
